

Basic English 2

Unit 3 Lesson 3 – My grandfather's name is Joe.

Complete the dialogue.

A: What is the _____ like today?

B: It's  today. I don't like it.

A: Why not?

B: Because I _____ (not) play soccer. What weather do you like?

A: I like  weather because I _____ go to the beach _____ a  day.

Today's Sentences

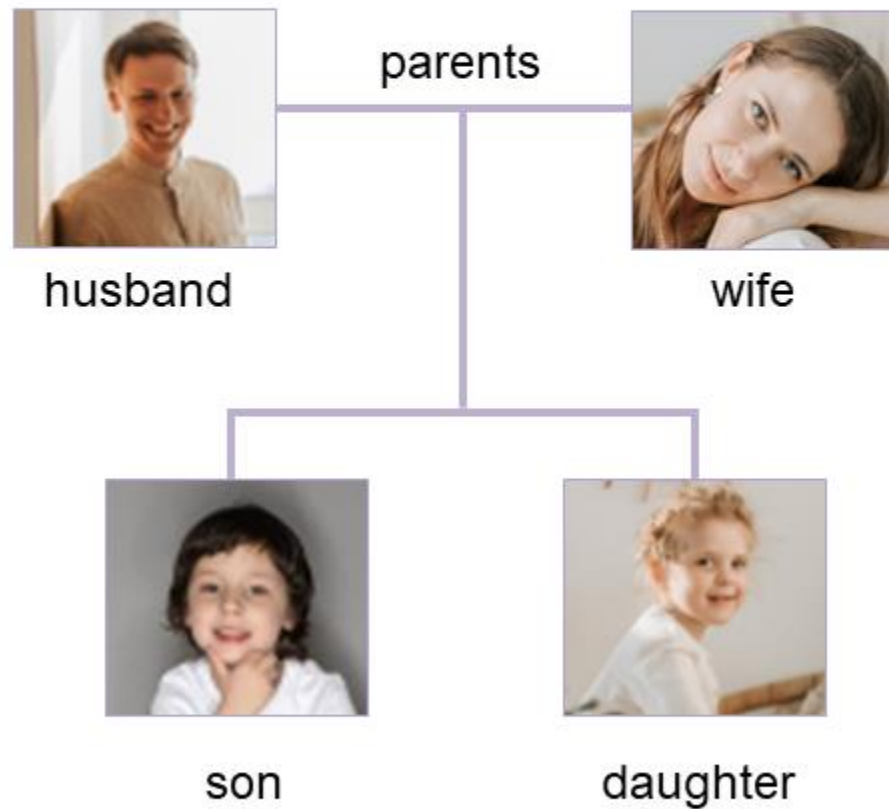

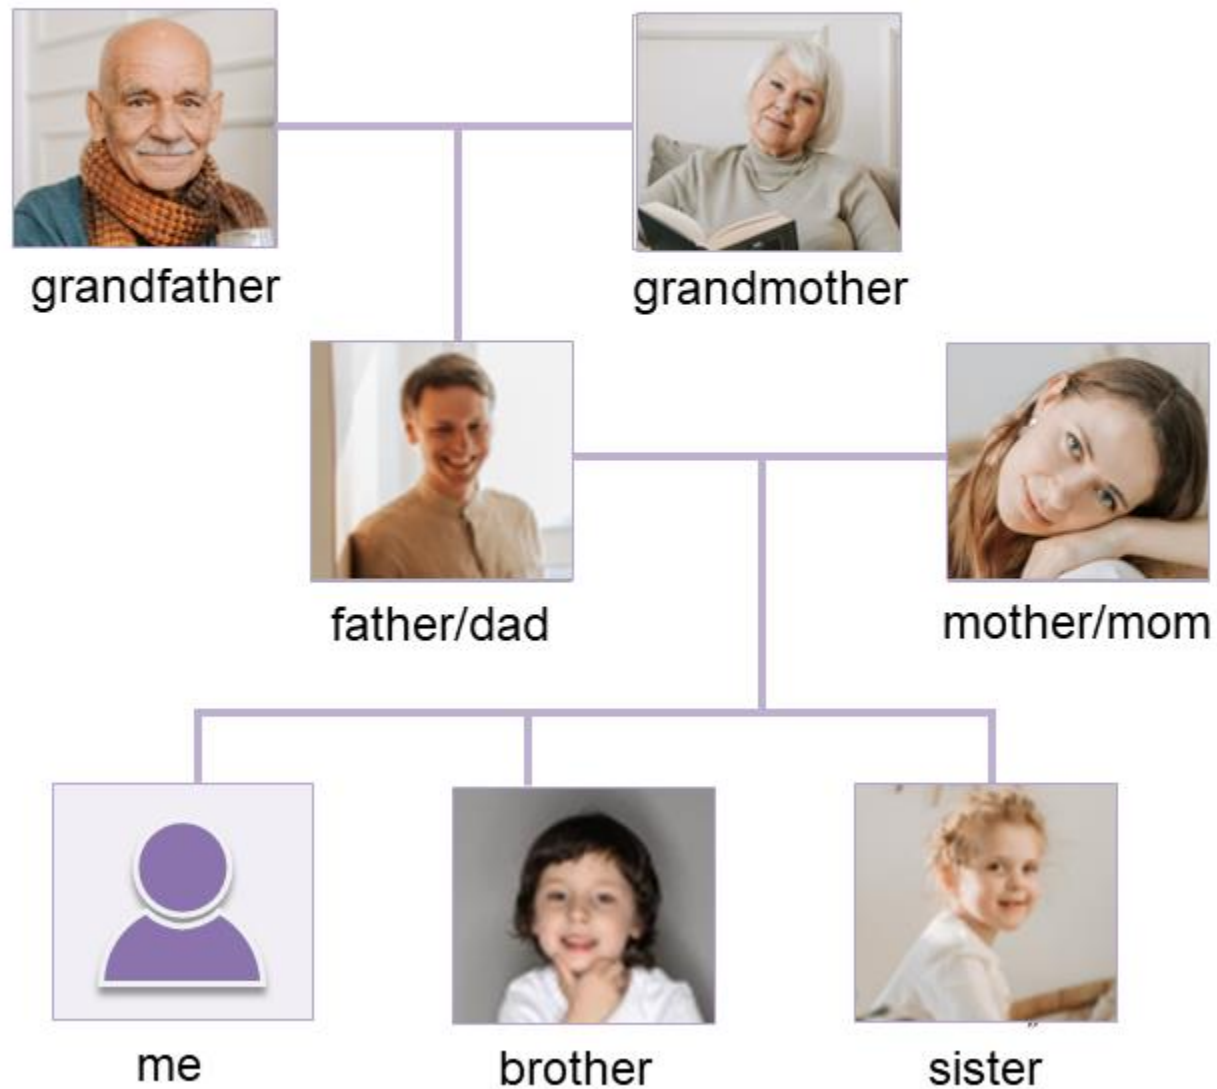

Target Language

My grandfather's name is Joe.

Her name's Jane.

Listen to the teacher and repeat.

Listen to the audio and repeat.

Aya: This is a lovely photo. Who is your father?

Bo: This is my father. He's wearing glasses.
And this is my uncle.

Aya: Oh, I see. Is this your grandfather?

Bo: Yes, and my grandfather's name is Joe.

Aya: The woman next to your grandfather is your grandmother, right?

Bo: Yes. Her name's Jane.

Aya: She looks beautiful and elegant!

Bo: Thank you.

2 Main Uses of the Apostrophe (')

Apostrophes

1. We add an Apostrophe S ('s) for the possessive form of singular nouns. For plural nouns or names that end with an "s", we only add an apostrophe (').

name of her father	her father's name
brother of Anna	Anna's brother
book of Thomas	Thomas' book
office of the doctors	doctors' office

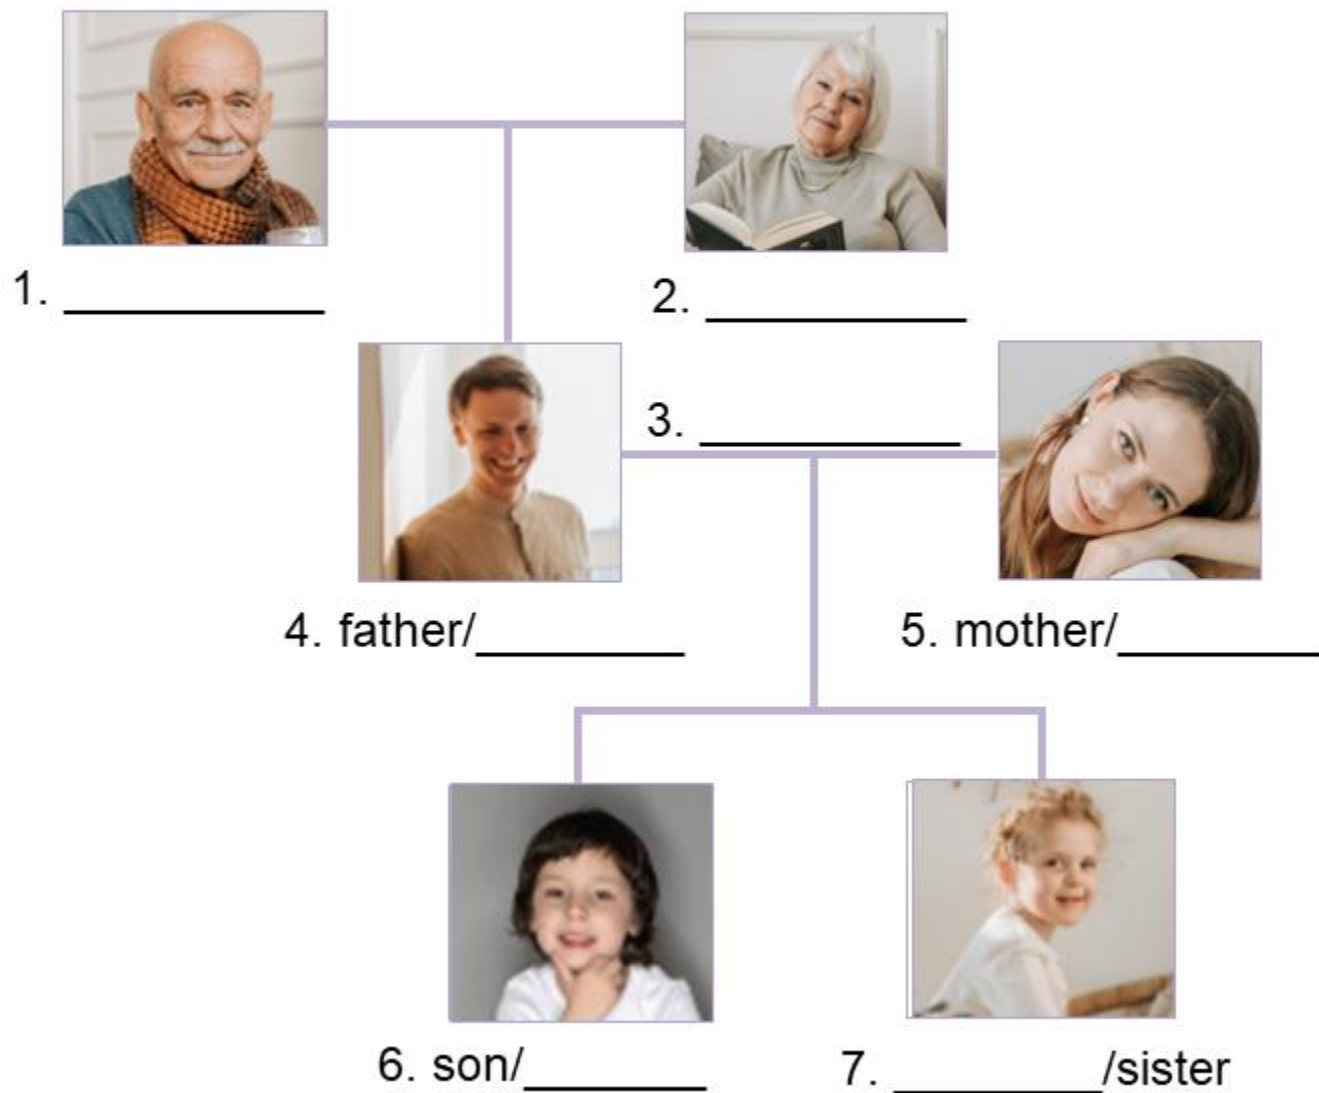

- ✗ She's grandfather name is Joe.
- ✗ Her's grandfather name is Joe.
- ✓ Her grandfather's name is Joe.

2. We use an Apostrophe (') for contractions.

name is	name's
they are	they're
do not	don't
there is	_____
is not	_____

- ✗ My names' Aya.
- ✗ My name'is Aya.
- ✓ My name's Aya.

Label the family tree.

Change the sentences using apostrophes where needed.

Example: This is the family of Serena. → This is Serena's family

1. This is the mother of Debbie.

2. These are the magazines of my sister.

3. The name of her dog is Chanel.

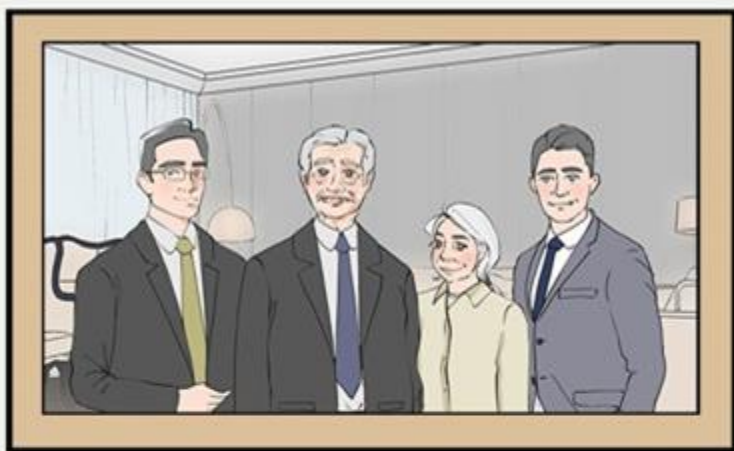

4. The car of Alexis is blue.

5. The nationality of Peter is Australian.

Add the missing apostrophes (') in the sentences.

1. Michele is Ayas mom.
2. The students nationalities are Japanese and Korean.
3. Theres a big park near my friends house.
4. Wheres Roberts bedroom?
5. I cant see your teachers office from here.

Situation: You invited a friend to your home. She saw your family photo album. How would you introduce the people in your family photos?