ON AIR

▶ Host: We're glad to have you here, Chris. Let's jump right into it. What inspired you to start content creation?

Chris: Well, it all began with my passion for challenges. I've always been a competitive person. I thought, why not create videos where I could share my love for challenges with the world and maybe even inspire others to step out of their comfort zones?

▶ Host: That's a fantastic start! What types of content do you create?

Chris: On Challenger's Playground, my best friends and I make lots of different entertaining content, including but not limited to fun games and challenges. We do things like eating super spicy food, doing physical races, solving tricky puzzles, and making up our own exciting games. We do all of these to make sure the people watching our videos have a great time and see us try cool and challenging stuff.

▶ Host: As we know, being an internet superstar is not always easy. What challenges did you face as a content creator?

Chris: I encountered quite a number of struggles at the beginning. One of the challenges was gaining more viewers, especially in the early days when there was so much competition. Moreover, I didn't have the best equipment at that time. All I had was an ordinary laptop and an old camera which made recording and editing videos difficult. However, we believed that where there's a will, there's a way. In the end, we overcame these challenges by being persistent and listening to the ideas of viewers.

▶ Host: It's clear that you've overcome significant obstacles as a content creator. What tips would you give to young creators who are just starting their content creation journey?

Chris: I'd be happy to share some tips. First and foremost, find what you're passionate about and focus on this. Second, be consistent by having an upload schedule. This way your viewers know when to expect your next video. Third, engage with your viewers by responding to their comments. Last but not the least, remember that success takes time, so be patient and keep improving your skills.

▶ Host: Thank you so much for sharing your insights and experiences with us today, Chris.

Chris: Thank you, Emma. It's been a blast.

Host: Thank you all for tuning in to this episode of Smart Insights: Junior Edition. We hope you found this interview enlightening and inspiring. Until next time, stay creative, everyone!
